English usage

Essayez de r?pondre ? toutes les questions...

John's shirt is [the same than] [similar than] [similar to] [the same to] yours.

I [was still] [still was] [was yet] [am still] having lunch when she knocked at the door.

Who was the woman [spoke to you] [that you were speaking to] [that you spoke] [speaking to you] ?

There isn't a good restaurant [anywhere] [somewhere] [nowhere] [everywhere] in this town.

Edith is [more pretty] [prettier] [prettiest] [more prettier] than Mary.

Look, children! Your uncle has [carried] [taken] [brought] [bring] you a bag of sweets.

"I am going to the cinema tomorrow." "So [do I] [am I] [I am] [I do] ."

The ski resorts are usually crowded there are many people [enjoy] [that enjoying] [who enjoy] [who enjoying] skiing.

Every old house like this has [its] [it] [their] [the] strange stories.

I [didn't go] [don't go] [haven't been] [hadn't been] to the cinema since last year.

" [which] [whose] [whom] [what] bag is this?" "It's John's".

That's my name on the document but it isn't my [mark] [signature] [sign] [point]

I am slow to [express my opinion] [express my viewing] [make my views] [make my opinion]

I have to have this report finished [by Friday] [until Friday] [Friday before] [Friday beginning]

He came to the party [in case] [even] [also] [although] he hadn't been invited.

They were all on the platform, waiting [for the train] [the train to] [for the train to] [the train] arrive.

It [makes no difference] [makes not a difference] [is different] [is not a difference] to me whether we meet them or not.

[Everyone] [All students] [Everyone student] [All the students] in the class like their English teacher.

I'm going out to the garden to pick some beans [for] [so] [that] [while] it isn't raining.

There wasn't [anybody] [somebody] [any people] [someone] in the shop.

We were fortunate enough to visit the Grand Canyon. It has [beautiful scenery that is much] [many beautiful landscapes] [many beautiful sceneries] [much beautiful scenery]

Do we have [a lot of] [plentiful] [plenty of] [enough] money to last us the week?

any excited women could [seen] [be seen] [be seeing] [be see] at the department store sale.

Tous droits r?serv?s Thalasoft 2010.

Simon is too busy [for] [to] [that] [too] see her now.

There wasn't anything interesting on the news, [wasn't it] [was there] [didn't it] [wasn't there] ?

We've proved that he was guilty but he [yet] [already] [still] [never] doesn't admit it.

If I [would have noticed] [had noticed] [have noticed] [noticed] the mistake, I would have corrected it.

John decided [to begin] [to commence] [to take up] [to start up] golf on weekends.

Are you [enter] [going entering] [go to enter] [going to enter] the competition?

He [forgotten] [for gets] [forgets] [has forgotten] to close the window almost every day.

Tous droits r?serv?s Thalasoft 2010.

English usage

John's shirt is [similar to] yours.

I [was still] having lunch when she knocked at the door.

Who was the woman [that you were speaking to] ?

There isn't a good restaurant [anywhere] in this town.

Edith is [prettier] than Mary.

Look, children! Your uncle has [brought] you a bag of sweets.

"I am going to the cinema tomorrow." "So [am I] ."

The ski resorts are usually crowded there are many people [who enjoy] skiing.

Every old house like this has [its] strange stories.

I [haven't been] to the cinema since last year.

" [whose] bag is this?" "It's John's".

That's my name on the document but it isn't my [signature]

I am slow to [express my opinion]

I have to have this report finished [by Friday]

He came to the party [although] he hadn't been invited.

They were all on the platform, waiting [for the train to] arrive.

It [makes no difference] to me whether we meet them or not.

[All the students] in the class like their English teacher.

I'm going out to the garden to pick some beans [while] it isn't raining.

There wasn't [anybody] in the shop.

We were fortunate enough to visit the Grand Canyon. It has [many beautiful landscapes]

Do we have [enough] money to last us the week?

any excited women could [be seen] at the department store sale.

Simon is too busy [to] see her now.

There wasn't anything interesting on the news, [was there] ?

We've proved that he was guilty but he [still] doesn't admit it.

If I [had noticed] the mistake, I would have corrected it.

John decided [to take up] golf on weekends.

Are you [going to enter] the competition?

He [forgets] to close the window almost every day.

Tous droits r?serv?s Thalasoft 2010.